

Hold Elections Tuesday

Civic Committee At Frankfort O.K.'s Sewer

At a joint meeting of the Frankfort Citizens Civic committee — made up of representatives from every civic and service group in the community — and the village board Monday night unanimous approval was given the proposed sanitary sewer system for Frankfort, together with the mode of financing agreed upon and a revised schedule of rates.

The committee also will make a canvass of the village and solicit support of the project. A mass meeting at which the program will be discussed is scheduled for 8:00 p.m. April 29 at the village hall.

By that time the committee hopes to have explained the details to enough individuals that the project will be clear in everyone's mind.

The same program will be financed thru general obligation bonds, in the sum of $140,000 — which are retired thru taxes — and revenue bonds, in the sum of $300,000 — which are retired thru earnings of the system. The people of Frankfort will vote on the general obligation bonds May 2.

Prior to the joint session Monday the board met with representatives from the two low bidders on the two bond issues, Benjamin Lewis and Co., and McDougal and Condon, Inc. with which M. Vlek is associated in the bidding.

Benjamin Lewis and Co. had an escalator clause in its bid, based on the Dow-Jones bond averages. If interest rates were up by fall, when the bonds would be sold, Frankfort would pay more, and of course, pay less, if interest rates were down then.

New Lenox, Frankfort, Mokena, Orland Park To Pick Village Officers

Orland Park, Mokena, Frankfort and New Lenox voters will go to the polls next Tuesday, April 21, to choose village officials.

There are contests in each community.

Village halls will serve as polling places in the first three towns named but at New Lenox the fire house will be used. Polls will be open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m.

New Lenox will elect a mayor as well as trustees but in the other municipalities only board members will be named.

New Lenox

In New Lenox the incumbent mayor, Lloyd Berlin, is not a candidate for re-election as holding public office does not fit in his plans for the coming year.

There are two candidates for mayor, however—Stanley Gilmore, now completing a term as village trustee, and Donald H. Anderson, a farm supply salesman.

Frederick Noel Elliott, New Lenox druggist and a member of the village board, is running unopposed for a two-year term, left vacant by Leonard Helmerding who has moved away.

James Battle, who has been police commissioner and a member of the board, was not a candidate for re-election.

Six candidates, none of whom are now in office, are running for the three four-year terms to be filled on the village board. They are:

Eugene Hunt, operator of a service station; Eugene (Steve) McGovney, an employee in the freight division of the Rock Island offices; Chester Bowman, a laboratory employee of the Caterpillar company; John A. Brent, an engineer for Blockson Chemical; Robert T. Buckler, food salesman and Evans W. Drotts, insurance broker.

Village Clerk Robert J. McCleary is running for re-election without opposition.

Orland Park

There are three village trustees and two library directors to be elected at Orland Park. The three incumbents, Lloyd E. Cowan, Melvin H. Doogan and Paul E. Voss, are running for election on the Citizens Party ticket.

Observers say the Orland Park board has been one of the best in the area in watching after the interests of the people. The three incumbents (Continued to page 2)

School Bonds, Transportation, Junior College Tax Get Approval

Elections were held last Saturday in all school districts in the state. In the case of seven-member boards, polls were open from noon to 7:00 p.m. Districts governed by school directors vote differently. Candidates are named at caucuses preceding the opening of the polling place on the afternoon of election day. The polling place is open for only a relatively short time.

Partial returns from the voting in this area follow:

CARL SANDBURG H. S.
Voters of Carl Sandburg high school district approved an increased tax levy to defray cost of transporting students to and from school. The new rate is 10 cents.

Under the state law a district that provides transportation for pupils may levy a tax of two cents per $100 equalized assessed valuation. To levy a greater tax requires a referendum.

The two cents levied in the Sandburg district does not produce sufficient revenue to meet transportation costs with the result that some of the money must be taken from the educational fund.

As a result of the referendum last Saturday the board can now levy up to 10 cents per $100 of equalized valuation.

The vote on the referendum was 538 in favor of the increase and 307 against it.

A total of 864 votes were cast.

The two candidates for the two places on the board of education, Harold Stellwagen, Orland township, and Herman Wilzb, Palos township, each received 788 votes, according to unofficial returns.

LINCOLN-WAY H. S.

J. Earl Robinson, of New Lenox, and James A. Dixon, Lincoln Estates, were re-elected to the Lincoln-Way high school board Saturday. They were without opposition.

Unofficial returns from the five polling places in the district are:

Robinson	Dixon
New Lenox	51
Manhattan	54
Lincoln Est.	94
Frankfort	261

Mokena	207	196
Frankfort	667	680

A three-way races for two places on the Frankfort grade school board was decided in favor of Glenn Nissen and Edward Tewes last Saturday. Ralph Dralle was defeated.

The proposal to extend the school year beyond 9 months was defeated 157 to 142.

Unofficial returns for the board contest are:

Nissen	232
Tewes	230
Dralle	100

Nissen and Tewes were elected to 3-year terms. There were no incumbents in the race.

Extension of the school year was sought so that the district might have a cushion in the event that bad weather or illness necessitated closing down the school for brief periods. If the school term were officially extended such close downs would not block state aid. Under the law covering state aid to schools, a district must have 185 days of school in a nine month period unless the year be extended.

The only incumbent on the ticket. She received 85 votes. The other two elected to the board and the vote of each, were: Charles A. McKinley, 94; Ernst Bengtson, 88.

PEOTONE UNIT DIST.

A Green Garden man, Glen Nagel, and George Barr, of Wilton township, were elected to the Peotone Unit district board of education last Saturday.

There were four candidates for the two posts. Barr received the largest number of votes, 803. Nagel's vote was 762, according to the unofficial returns. Clyde Cann, of Will, received 560 votes and Mildred Jacobsen, 535.

Berlin Proposes Means to Start Sewer System

The New Lenox village board held a special meeting last night at which it prepared a counter proposal to that submitted by the developers of a housing development on the Warren farm west of the village.

The developers offered to sell the sewage treatment plant it proposes to build to the village, the supposition being that it would fit in with the future sanitary sewer system plans for the village.

Mayor Lloyd Berlin pointed out that inasmuch as the developers would get back the money spent on the treatment plant thru its sale of houses there was no reason for them to be paid twice.

He also pointed out that if the development is annexed, as requested, the people there would be reluctant to support any move to supply the rest of the community with sewer and water, inasmuch as they would already be supplied.

At last night's meeting the mayor proposed that the village sell $150,000 in general obligation bonds and build a sewage treatment plant. Primarily this plant would serve (Continued to page 2)

Advise Citizens Of Civil Defense Alert Tomorrow

Mokena will participate in a civil defense alert at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow, April 17. The procedures to be followed will coincide to what would take place if an actual natural or national disaster should occur.

The civil defense unit, police and fire departments, will follow prescribed directions. The Wilmington police squad car will assist in the activity as the Mokena squad car is not equipped with radio.

All schools will be alerted from civil defense headquarters and will take the necessary pre-arranged precautions.

All radio and television stations will be silent and Conrad will be in effect. The public is advised to tune in on 630 and 1240 on their radio dials.

On Saturday, a joint demonstration will be held with Palos Park, Orland Park and Mokena. The rescue of a person in a trapped car will be demonstrated in each village at the following time and locations: Palos Park, 123rd and Harlem, 10 a.m.; Orland Park (Continued to page 2)

Lions Project

Break Ground for Picnic Shelter

The Lions of Lincoln-Way broke ground Thursday morning for a picnic shelter on the Lincoln-Way high school campus for the Girls Athletic Association.

The Lincoln-Way Lions are made up of Lions clubs members from the various communities that make up the Lincoln-Way high school district and have contributed considerably to various improvements at the school.

Contract for the picnic shelter, which is to cost some $3,300, has been given to Henry G. Breidert, a member of the Frankfort Lions club. He turned the first shovel of earth for the footing excavations for the shelter. It is to be of brick.

Participating in the ceremony Thursday were A. Hunter Chapman, superintendent of the school; Frank Goetschel president of the New Lenox Lions; Ernest Pfeifer of New Lenox and Walter W. Welsch of the Mokena Lions.

As a means of raising funds to pay for the shelter the Lincoln-Way Lions are sponsoring the Gamma Phi gymnastic circus from Normal university. This troupe of gymnasts and acrobats will perform tomorrow night (April 17) in the Lincoln-Way gymnasium. The show is to begin at 8 o'clock and tickets may be purchased at the door.

The picnic shelter is to be built near the artificial lake at the north end of the campus.

Orland Fire House

Fund Campaign Kicks-Off Tonight

Fund campaign 3-36 P. M. N. B.

A meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in the Orland Park grade school will serve as the kickoff of a fund campaign by the fire department of that village for new quarters.

The present fire engine house, the former village hall, is an ancient frame structure, on Beacon street, and has been described as a fire hazard itself.

The proposed new fire house will be erected at this site, which is the property of the village.

The village board has given permission to use the property for fire department quarters and the building planned has a wing at one end and is so designed that it could be expanded by the addition of a wing at the other end which could serve as a village hall.

The public is invited to attend the meeting tonight to become acquainted with the needs of the department.

Members of the department first took plans of the proposed improvement to the village board, as announced several weeks ago, and that body approved the idea and gave the firemen permission to make a campaign for funds.

The Orland Park Chamber of Commerce and other organizations of the community are supporting the campaign. It is estimated that the fire house will cost approximately $18,000. There are approximately 900 families in the area served by the fire department and $20 a family will meet the bill, it was pointed out.

Persons may take a couple of years to meet their pledge if they desire it was said.

The proposed building is to be L-shaped, of early American design, with gabled roof and an exterior of pink-red face brick and white trim.

According to Fire Chief Arthur Granat the overall dimensions of the engine house will be 46 by 70. There will be three stalls for equipment, plus an assembly room, office, small kitchen, wash rooms, and a utility room.

Better fire protection for the area means even better insurance rates, it was pointed out.

Sandburg Addition

Contracts Let Total $807,370

Contracts for the new addition to Carl Sandburg high school were awarded by the board of education at a meeting Monday night.

The contracts were let under four classifications, general, heating and ventilating, plumbing and electrical. The painting contract will be let later.

There were between 35 and 40 contractors to bid on the various phases of the work, an unusually large number, it was pointed out, and the competition was keen.

The bids for the four categories totaled $807,370. When architect, legal fees, painting, landscaping and other costs are added it is estimated the entire figure will come to $891,812, which is well within the estimate.

The total bond issue approved by the voters was for $1,035,000. It includes funds to acquire an additional campus site in the southern part of the district. So far the board has not decided on the site.

The new addition to the present school will be the last there, it was stated some time ago. The new addition will provide what is described as space for 22 classrooms, and an enrollment of around 2,000. The board announced some time ago that when the enrollment got beyond that figure other sites would be brought into use. The district owns one around 11th street and will have one in the southern part.

The new addition will include several science laboratories, space for the art and home economics departments, including kitchens.

A swimming pool also is to be built.

The successful bidders and the amount of each bid were: General contract, E. E. Sproul, Chicago, $545,057.

Heating and ventilating, James L. Cunningham, Beverly Hills, $100,776.

Pumbing, Keystone Plumbing Co., Chicago, $99,555. Electrical Pacific Electric Co., Bensenville, $61,982.

Former Area Resident Dies Of Car Injury

Elizabeth Gravelle, nee Breitbarth, of Chicago, died recently in a Chicago hospital where she was taken following an accident while crossing the street. She was a sister of Christina Horn of Orland Park.

Born in Bremen township March 24, 1883, she lived in Chicago since her marriage to Joseph Gravelle on June 25, 1907.

Surviving besides her husband and the brother and sister mentioned, are another brother, Otto Breitbarth of Truman, Minn.

Funeral services were held at Schmaedeke Funeral home, Orland Park. The Rev. A. Lach officiated. Burial was in Woodlawn cemetery, Forest Park.

Grass Fires Keep New Lenox Fire Dept. on the Run

Spring and the accompanying high winds which fan and spread grass fires, has kept the New Lenox fire department busy the last two weeks. From March 16 to March 24, the department resounded to 15 of such calls.

Burning trash when the weather is windy is a dangerous practice and can result in the loss of property. Ironically, Spring is the time for housewives to clear closets and attics of rubbish in a spring cleaning session. If rubbish must be burned, it is best to wait until a day when the wind velocity is low.

One of the grass fires on March 24, spread to a garage at the home of John Francis, 3146 Haven causing damage to the building and an automobile.

Postmaster General Announces Improved Area Mail Service

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield claims that service improvements will provide next day first class letter service for over eight million people in the 7,600 square mile Chicago Metropolitan area, embracing 11 Illinois and three Indiana counties. He made the assertion on a stop over at Chicago on Tuesday.

"A month's shake down period has proven," Mr. Summerfield said, "that, barring occasional human errors, all first class letters deposited before five p.m. on a weekday will be delivered to destination within the area on the first delivery trip of the following weekday."

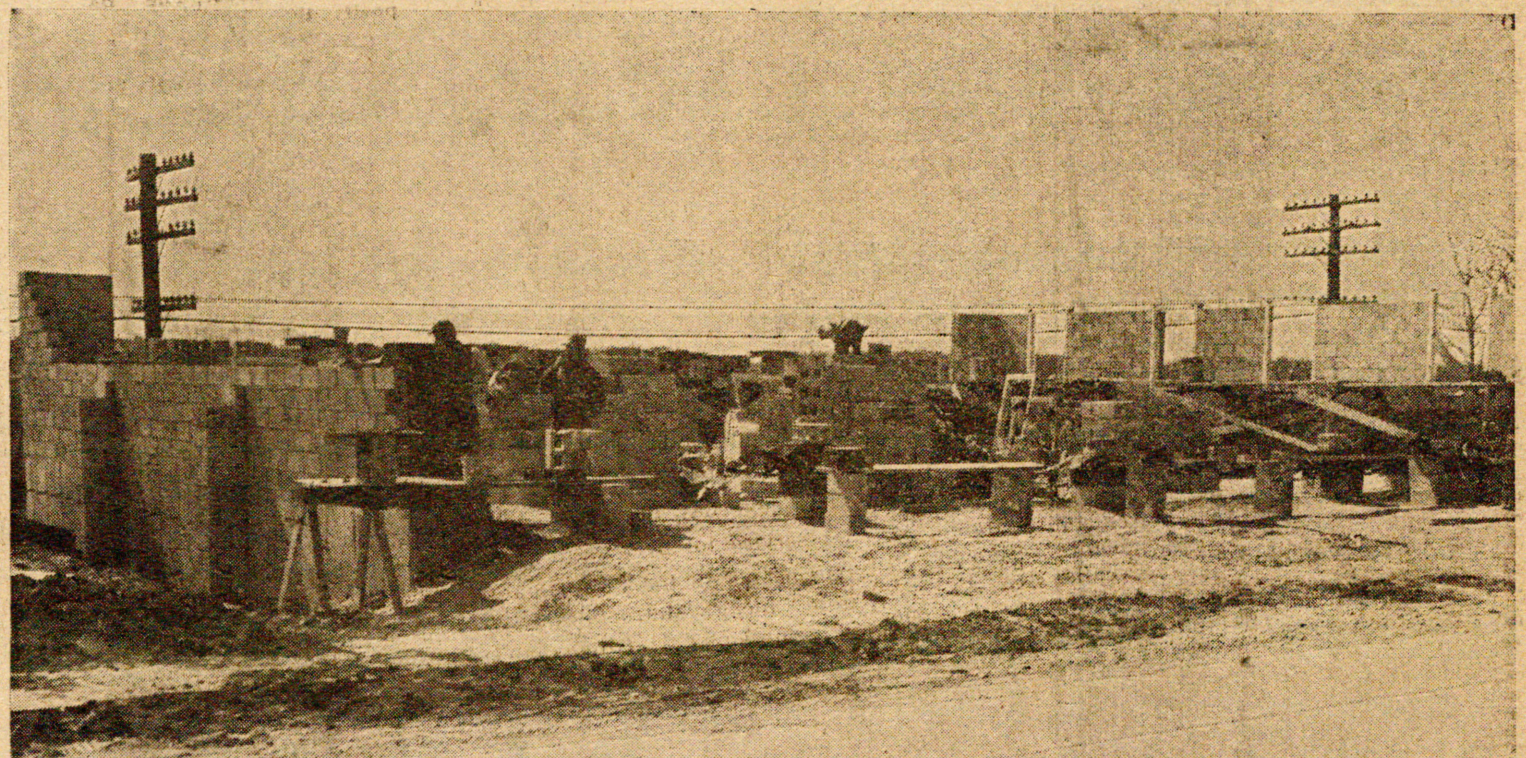

Annexation petitions must be accompanied by a deposit of $500. The deposits that must accompany requests for approval of subdivisions range from $500 for those containing less than 50 lots up to $2,000 for those containing 251 or more lots.

When a proposed subdivision contains 25 or more lots notice of the action must be filed with the school districts affected.

The board has a new dram shop ordinance in the works that Attorney Raymond Pieper plans to submit at the next meeting. In the meantime the board amended its present ordinance Monday night to accommodate the request of John A. Hofferica, operator of the Walgreen Agency Drug Store, for a license to sell package liquor and beers. Such beverages must be sold for consumption off the premises. The license fee was $200. Amendment to the ordinance was necessary because it contained no provision for the sale of package liquors.

Request for approval of the plat for Unit 3 of Orland Park Hills subdivision was held up until the board has had opportunity to reach a conclusion on the placement of street lights. Some residents of the development want street lights and some do not.

NEED HELP TO FINISH JOB that is needed in Mokena, say those in charge of the campaign to raise funds for building a fire engine house in the village. The project is that of the Mokena Community Volunteer Fire Department. The building, which is located on Front street, near Midland, is well underway but if it is to be finished, more contributions are needed and persons who pledged donations but have not yet paid them are asked to do so by Walter Muehler, chairman of the building fund finance committee.

At the present rate of return, Muehler says, the fund will fall short of its goal unless contributions increase in the next few weeks. Team captains have endeavored to get in touch with all the persons on their lists but many have been out when calls were made. Persons not contacted are asked to call Mokena 3312 or send their contributions direct to the fire department treasurer, Fred Werner. Firemen point out that an engine house which will permit the department to operate more equipment will pay dividends in insurance rates. The present low rate of fire insurance in Mokena is due to the protection given by the fire department, it was pointed out. The firemen are now asking the public for help. (Marvin Smith photo)

Bike Safety Campaign Set For New Lenox

A bike safety program, sponsored by the New Lenox PTA and school administrators, with the aid of village and state police, is to be conducted April 30 thru May 9.

New Lenox grade school teachers, as well as police, will instruct the youngsters in rules of the road for bicycle riders. They will have an opportunity to demonstrate whether they have learned their lessons thru tests to be conducted on the Oakview school grounds, N. Cedar road. An obstacle course will be set up on the grounds and riders must demonstrate they are able to control their bikes at all times.

The tests will be held every evening, beginning at 6 o'clock, April 30 thru May 9. Those who pass will be given a driver's certificate and a license plate for their bikes, according to School Supt. John Oster.

Supt. Oster, James Sampson PTA safety chairman, New Lenox Police Chief George Kennedy, Policeman Joseph Wajchert, State Trooper William Hecht, who resides at New Lenox, and M. R. Kruch, principal of Haven school, met last Friday to map out the program.

Mr. Sampson, who is safety director of the Ordinance Ammunition Command, Joliet Arsenal, will be in charge of the program.

In brief, bicycle riders are required to follow the laws laid down for automobiles. Riding on sidewalks, riding back and forth across the road and riding against traffic instead of with it are pointed out as three of the most common violations by bike riders.

Mokena Boy Hit by Ball Bat Suffers Skull Fracture

Michael Bernard, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bernard, of Mokena, is in Silver Cross hospital with a skull fracture as a result of a playground accident yesterday morning at the Carpenter street school.

A group of youngsters was playing baseball and Michael was struck on the head with a bat. The incident occurred just before school opened at 9 o'clock. Teachers called his family.

The youngster, never unconscious at any time following the injury, was taken to Silver Cross hospital. Examination showed a depressed fracture and in the afternoon a specialist operated, removing the bone fragments and repairing the damage. Michael was in surgery for two hours.

His condition is reported as good and it was expected that he would be able to go home in seven days. He is in Room 148.

Death Claims Elizabeth Sass; Funeral Today

Mrs. Elizabeth Sass, 76, died Tuesday morning, April 14, in Silver Cross hospital after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Sass was born July 26, 1882 on a farm on the east end of Hadley, in Homer township, the daughter of the late Daniel and Dorothea Lauffer. As a child she attended the Baptist Sunday school in the Hadley meeting house and there received her early religious instruction. She taught public schools in the area from 1901 to 1909 and occasionally thereafter.

In 1919, after the death of her sister, she went to the home of her brother-in-law, Louis F. Sass, to care for her two young nephews. In 1921 she and Mr. Sass were united in marriage and to them was born one son. She was a member of the Marley Community church and was a faithful worker there.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Sass is survived by three sons, Loren, Daniel and Charles all of Homer township; 4 grandchildren; a brother, Fred G. Lauffer, Homer; two sisters, Mrs. Carrie Gee, of Douglas, Ariz., and Mrs. Alma Armstrong, Indian Rocks Beach, Fla.

Removal was to the Sonntag chapel, Joliet, where services will be held this afternoon, April 16 at 2 o'clock, with the Rev. Ray Hamer, pastor of the Marley church, officiating. Burial will be in St. John's cemetery, Mokena.

CIVIC COMMITTEE—

and Vlek agreed to freeze their bid of 4.221 per cent on general obligation bonds and 4.983 per cent on revenue bonds for six months. The village board believed it would be to the best interests of the community to take the McDougal and Condon proposal. The civic committee agreed.

Many familiar with the bond market are inclined to believe that interest rates will be higher on municipal offerings in the fall.

Robert Hamilton, village engineer, submitted a revised schedule of charges under which a minimum charge of $4.50 a month for sewer service was proposed for up to 5,000 gallons. This minimum rate, he said, will extend to approximately 70% of utility customers and is considered to represent a normal water consumption rate of 50 gallons per capita per day for a family of 3 1/2 persons.

This rate was found acceptable by the Civic committee and the board. There are many homes in Frankfort that have cisterns but since cistern-derived water requires the same sewage service as the municipal water it was agreed that it was inequitable to base service charges wholly on metered water. Hence the change.

A schedule of the rates, based on monthly usage, as approved by the Civic Committee and the village board, follows:

Average Gallons Used	Monthly Water Bill	Sewer
0-1000	$2.00	$4.50
2000	2.00	4.50
3000	2.55	4.50
4000	3.03	4.50
5000	3.51	4.50

Annual Dinner At St. Jude Set For Sunday Noon

The St. Joseph Seminary Choir, of Westmont in DuPage county, will be at St. Jude church, New Lenox, this Sunday, April 19.

The appearance of the choir is one of the several events to take place in the parish this year in celebration of its Silver Anniversary.

Sunday also is a special occasion in that it marks the date of the Spring sirloin of beef dinner, now become an annual affair and always well attended.

The dinner is open to the public, with serving to start at 12 noon. Co-chairmen of the dinner are Mrs. John Hasbar, Mrs. Ivan Archibald and Mrs. John F. Riley.

The seminary choir will also sing at the dinner. It will sing earlier at the 10:30 mass. The choir is made up of approximately 50 men and boys who are studying for the priesthood in the Franciscan order. The choir director is the Rev. T. Fischer, O.F.M.

BERLIN PROPOSES—

the first unit of the proposed subdivision which would be made up of approximately 180 homes. The subdividers would pay the village $75,000. When the second unit was annexed the subdividers would pay the village another $75,000, and so on. The proposed subdivision would not be annexed as a whole but in units. The developers plan to erect a total of 760 homes. The village would annex the area in sections, one unit at a time.

The service charge for treating sewage would be paid to the village. The mayor believes that people in the subdivision then would be willing to support a move to finance a sewer system for the rest of the community thru revenue bonds because with more customers the rates could be reduced. The treatment plant would already be built and that cost would not be a factor.

The water mains to be installed by the subdividers would also become the property of the village, the mayor proposes, and he believes a deal could be worked out with the Illinois Municipal Water Co., which now supplies some homes in New Lenox, to sell water to the village and the latter could in turn sell it to consumers.

Eventually a deal might be worked out, it was believed, whereby the water company would either put in a system for the entire community or the village could acquire its mains and wells and build its own system.

Mayor Berlin also proposed to the board that it appropriate funds of approximately $7,000 to be available for the purchase of a sewage treatment plant site so that if an agreement can be reached with the subdividers the village will be in a position to proceed.

Three independent candidates are also running but as individuals and not as a slate. One of them, William L. McAler, Jr., operates a tavern and restaurant; Robert A. Bibeau, insurance broker, and George (Bud) Granat, an employee of the state highway department.

Running for the library board, unopposed are, Anne P. Durst and Helen M. Morgenthaler.

Mokena

There is one ticket in the field at Mokena where three board members are to be elected.

It is made up of Willard E. Munch, electrician and merchant; Anthony A. Dina, operator of a barber shop; and Ray B. Westlund, a printer and Henry G. Shevlin an employee of a lumber firm.

Munch and Westlund, the latter also serving as chairman of the police committee, are incumbents and running on their records.

Frankfort

Frankfort also has four candidates for the three places open on the village board. The three incumbents are John Tonn, Clyde Reils and Wayne J. DePorto. The other candidate is Amos D. Massey, operator of a gas station and motel.

Patrons Get Break During Library Week at Orland

The hours of library operation are Tuesdays 12 noon to 4:30 pm., Thursdays, 6 to 8 p.m. and Saturdays, 2 to 5 p.m.

The library is located at 9926 143rd pl. As a special reward to its patrons, the library is allowing all overdue books to be returned without charge this week.

SCHOOL BONDS—

last Saturday. Fifty of them voted for Howard Handorff and 47 cast ballots for William Heidrich. Both were incumbents and were without opposition.

HOMER

The three members of the board of Homer Consolidated School Dist. No. 33-C whose terms expire this month were reelected. Homer voters were against an additional tax in the Lockport high school district which would pay tuition in recognized junior colleges for students residing in the district who are graduates of recognized high schools, public or private, but the proposal carried in the district as a whole by some 300 votes.

The vote in Homer on this referendum was 230 for it and 212 against. The Lockport high school district is made up of all of Lockport and Homer townships and a major portion of DuPage township.

The valuation of the district is in excess of $100-million. The number of students in the district now attending junior college at their own expense ranges from 40 to 45.

The maximum levy that can be made for this purpose is 17 1/2 cents per $100 of equalized assessed valuation. It is estimated that a tax of two or three cents per $100 equalized valuation will be sufficient to meet the tuition costs.

The tuition in Joliet Junior college — where the students from Lockport high school district are enrolled — is $325.

Under the state law governing this scholarship tax the state would pay $200 for each of these pupils in its aid program which would leave $325 to be raised thru taxation.

In the unofficial returns on the school board election the first three candidates named below were elected:

Everett Holm 141
Robert Church 131
Ray Carlson 121
Darrel Shepherd 105
Barney Welter, of Homer was one of the three elected to the Lockport township high school board Saturday. The other two were Felix Boric and Willard Anderson, Lockport. Boric was the only incumbent to be returned to the board. W. Melvin Blogg and Vern P. Widner were defeated.

MOKENA

Mokena voters approved a $84,000 bond issue last Saturday, thus assuring an addition that will double the size of Willow Crest school.

The addition is necessary, because of increased enrollment and a population growth that will maintain such enrollment for years to come.

The vote was 175 for the bond proposal and 63 against it.

The board can now proceed with plans for construction of the addition.

There was no contest for the two three year terms on the board. Edwin Yunker, with 217 votes, and Hans Mueller with 214 votes, were elected.

Tinley Man Has Attack of Asthma; Taken to Hospital

Leonard Rothenberg was taken to Silver Cross hospital Joliet, Tuesday with a severe asthmatic condition. It was necessary to call the inhalator squad, but he is slightly improved, according to the latest report.

Braves Turn on Power; Beat L-W 11-4

Bremen Looks Good in the Field As Well as Strong at Plate

"We respect Bremen's hitting power. They belted some long drives on Monday night," said Jonas Lashmet, Lincoln-Way baseball coach.

The Braves used the walk and the long drive to good advantage as they notched the first SW Suburban mark on their Tomahawk by a convincing 11-4 margin.

Bremen started fast with three runs in the first inning. Jim Hartman and Jim Mannaloni walked. Bob Rodger hit a ground ball to L-W second baseman Terry Schroeder and Schroeder threw to "Skip" Kruzich, who missed the second sack and threw late to first. Bases were loaded. Jerry Piepenbrink had trouble from there on.

The Knights finally solved the wild slants of Luke Kent and scored in the bottom of the fourth. They added two in the sixth and one in the seventh.

Bremen left 10 stranded and the Knights could not drive home 13 men.

The Braves hit Piepenbrink and Ron Yunker for 14 base hits. Rich Norbut and Wally Eggert hit for doubles and Luke Kent and Bob Rodger collected triples.

After Rodger's triple L-W walked him three times. Clean up hitter Norbut added three singles more in five times at bat.

Freshman Ron Yunker continued to lead the Knights hitting with a 2 for 2 evening. Thus, Yunker has a 4-for-5 season and .800. All of his hits have been singles.

The Braves looked sharp in the field. They handled the ground balls well and their outfield was not fooled. Kent went all the way on the mound but gave up 7 hits and 8 walks. He did strike out 9.

Osbourne, Lincoln-Way center fielder made some sparkling catches. The diminutive fly-chaser is proving to be a real ball-hawk.

Bremen has definitely shown itself to be a conference contender. The longball power is something to behold on one high school team. There appears to be the needed team effort and rumor has it that the Braves top pitcher was not used in the opener.

In fact, the lower half of the Braves batting order can collect the hits.

Last week the Braves beat Bloom on Rodger's triple, 8-4.

Base running was a problem for the Braves. They could easily have scored a few more runs in the contest — if the care had been used.

Lincoln-Way will be young and erratic over the season, but the Braves appear smoother and harder hitters than last year's heralded flops.

Thinclads of Bremen Open Season Tonight

Bremen's highly regarded track team travels to Blue Island tonight for its season opener.

The Braves are considered a good choice to cop the SW Suburban crown in the latter part of May.

The contest with the South Suburban foe should be a fair test of the Redmen strength.

Golfers From Sandburg Beat Reavis 167-195

The Carl Sandburg golf team won a match last weekend from Reavis, an SW Suburban foe, at Silver Lake. It was decided on medal scores.

The match was played over nine holes with Tom Schreiber setting a new record for Sandburg with a one under par 35 to take the medal for the day.

The match was decided by adding the four lowest scores of each team. Sandburg finished thus with a card of 167 as opposed to 195 for Reavis. Sandburg lost but one match, J. Young of Reavis fired a 44 against Breitbarth's 49. Sandburg won the other seven.

The scores:
Schreiber, 35; C. Young, 49; Bill Johnson, 41; Prytalt, 62; Frank, 45; Correll, 50; McBride 46; Zollar 52; Hayes 46; Moran 58; Cripps 48; Dzwilak 54; Galapeaux 52; Balcaitis 66.

Lions to Sponsor Program at L-W

The Lions of Lincoln-Way are sponsoring the gymnastic circus of the Illinois State Normal university Gamma Phi on Friday, April 17, 8 p.m. in the high school gym. The circus gives just two or three off-campus performances in one year and the Lincoln-Way area is considered fortunate to get them. Proceeds of the circus will be used to erect a picnic shelter for the Girls athletic Assn. Ground was broken for this shelter last Thursday.

Gamma Phi is a co-educational gymnastic fraternity; draws its members from interested students, faculty and staff from all departments of the university. The organization is self-supporting and owns most of the gymnastic equipment and all of the costumes used in the circus.

An annual circus has been presented on the campus every year since 1930 with the exception of the war years. It has always been an annual highlight of the campus entertainment program.

A 35 piece circus band, directed by Prof. Arden Vance, plays appropriate accompaniment for all the acts and appears with the circus at Lincoln-Way.

The skill in performance is considered to be much better than the average circus. Gymnastic lovers will be more than pleased and entertained by this show. In fact, this sort of thing has been a prime factor in the return of gymnastics to the American sports scene. The Lions need to raise about $3,310 to meet the cost of construction of the school picnic shelter.

160 Register for Little and Pony Leagues at Tinley

Baseball once again comes to Tinley Park. Over 160 boys have registered for Little League and Pony baseball. Boys between the ages of 9 thru 15 who have not registered should do so before April 18. Registration forms may be had by calling at the home of Mr. Meakim, 6673 Pine st. All Little League fathers who are interested in helping as managers, coaches, publicity writers, umpires, should call Mr. Meakim or one of the adult leaders associated with their boys. By having more fathers taking part with their sons in this program some of the problems that have existed could be eliminated.

Tryouts will take place on April 18, Saturday, and the following Saturday, April 25. Time for the various age groups will be the same for both Saturdays.

The schedule:

8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. - 9 yrs.
9:30 to 12:30 - 12 yrs.
12:45 to 2:45 - 10 yrs.
In order that the boys will have the opportunity to be noticed by the coaches, it will be necessary that the fathers be present to help in these tryouts.

Boys, remember the date, April 18 and April 25. If there is rain, tryouts will be held the following two weeks.

Browsing Through The Cold Stove League

There are football, and sports factories with the title of university and college. Much furor was raised when one—now proven—football factory fired an employee from a top administrative position.

However, there are other institutions of higher learning that are interested in this aspect of our lives called "sport"; but do not consider it out of perspective.

Bill Rohr, speaking at the Lions of Lincoln-Way athletic banquet, suggested that Northwestern was looking for students and then for athletes.

There are too many schools that put scholarship second and finally lose. Sort of like the football star at some great university-factory who enrolled in basket weaving to enhance his chances of remaining eligible. What! Three Navajos enrolled and he flunked the course. You said it . . . I didn't chuckle!

Northwestern has consistently turned out a well educated person and does not plan to change that pattern — even if it does mean to stay in the bottom half of the "Big Ten", says Rohr.

A trend of this type will talk big and loud to the high school athlete that he had better seek the honor society as avidly as he does the all-conference selections.

Rohr also suggested that discipline and hard training are a major part of athletics as they are of life. One does not get there by this "great natural ability," but by hard and arduous effort.

This would be an educational advance: No student with less than B-average would be eligible for a college scholarship — even if he was an all-state football player.

Actually, we could educate more of the intelligent students, if the pro football leagues set up a farm system at our football colleges—paid the debts and worried about the crowds. Overzealous alumni could still argue about their football teams, but could invest their money in scholarships for scholarship.

One could divide the colleges into sections for the pro teams. This would save the government some money — maybe even reduce a few taxes. Imagine—reduce our taxes by watching a pro football game from the stands. If the pros took over we might be able to cut our budget for the three service schools.

Forgetting the sophistry—Rohr's statement is refreshing and we hope that Northwestern's resurgence is not a turn away from this high standard.

We received a letter of thanks from the wrestling director of the Pan-American games for the special section that we published in February.

Plans are now underway for a special edition on the SW Suburban track and field meet. Also, in this section—to be published May 28 — a preview of the Memorial Day 500 will be included, featuring Tony Bettenhausen.

Carl Sandburg and Lincoln-Way get together for the battle of the hitless Friday at Orland Park. Both clubs have had trouble getting hits in the early season. Sandburg got a few hits against Rich, but failed in the field.

If Lincoln-Way's Jim McGuire is ready on Friday — the Eagles from Sandburg will be in for a rugged afternoon.

Rich Rallies to Edge Eagles, 7 to 6

Rich Rocket hit successfully to a shaky, 7-6, win over the on the last stage and blasted Eagles of Sandburg. It was a gust of Eagles wings that propelled the Rocket into its winning orbit.

Leading, 5-1, the Eagles flapped their wings as the balls raced by and the Rocket engines streaked around the basepaths. When the exhaust of the engines had died down the Eagles were trailing, 6-5.

Stefanson of Rich was an easy out at the start of the final stage of the Rich sa'vs. Kaage advanced to third as Eagle, Moe, flapped a ground ball in right field for a three base error. Phil Yurtis, Sandburg pitcher, walked Russell of Park Forest.

The Rocket fireman, Sammons, filched the Eagles plenty. Gravity was leaving the Orland Park field. Parks, the Eagle shortstop, kicked away a double play ball. Mays rapped a hard line triple for two more Rocket runs.

Lin Mautz of Rich walked and stole second. Yurtis then k.o'ed Sadek. He had two strikes and no balls on Zeller, Rich receiver, and tried to sneak by the third strike—but it instead went for a single and the Rockets had a 6-5 lead.

The Eagles had seemingly outdistanced the Rocket with a four run crash in the fourth inning. Hosler singled, Moe walked. Vince DiBenedetto drove in Hosier with a single. Both runners, on base, advanced on the throw in. Gorman singled both men home.

Coch Hank Meyer of the Eagles lamented, "We didn't get a hit against Lockport and beat them, 4-0. The other night we get eight hits and then throw the game away. Our fielding left entirely too much to be desired."

Meyer was happy with the relief work turned in by Wayne who relieved Yurtis in the middle of the fifth inning, after Rich had scored five runs.

Mays had the only long hit of the game with a triple. Rich scored its 7 runs on just 4 hits. That is an easy way to get them.

This would seem to indicate Rich is not a contender for the SWS crown. From some quarters the Rockets were hailed as a championship contender. Meyer is having to use many inexperienced sophomores on the Orland bluff and Rich was lucky to win. Exercise your judgment.

Sandburg Track Team Loses to River-Brooks

There was just too much Foster at Riverside-Brookfield Tuesday afternoon for Sandburg track and field coach Bill Adams concept of things. "That Foster scored with two first places and with at least two second places and it seemed that he was running everywhere."

Foster did just what Adams said he did. "The Eagles were extremely strong in the field events, but could not compete with the fleet men from Riverside-Brookfield."

The defeat evened the Sandburg mark at a win and a loss. Last Friday evening the Eagles swept a tri-meet over Reavis and Argo. Sandburg finished with 69 to Argo's 43 and Reavis' 36.

Dan Wasick, freshman from Palos, was the hero with four first places. Dan was first in the 100-yard dash with 10 5/8"—better than the varsity time. He won the 220-yard with 25 seconds. He threw the discus for 113' 3" for another first and finished the day with an 18' 6" broad jump for his final victory. Bill Agnew won the high hurdles in the varsity meet and missed being the only Sandburg man to win two firsts by falling down while ahead in the low hurdles.

Reed Williams of the Eagles won the half mile in 2 minutes and 7 seconds.

Stoutnour was the other Sandburg entrant to win first place alone. He put the shot 46 feet and 4 inches.

In the pole vault Sandburg had three men tied for first at quit jumping at 9 feet. Smith, Jennings and Pfeiffer were the three men tied for the Eagles.

Sandburg faces Oak Lawn tonight.

LAUNCH HOSPITAL BUILDING FUND DRIVE in the area surrounding Joliet. Last Sunday teams began a canvass in most communities in the area to solicit funds for a new St. Joseph hospital in Joliet.

In this picture are the Rev. Cecil Koop, O.F.M., pastor of St. Mary's church, Mokena, and Paul W. Kempe, superintendent of Silver Cross hospital. Mr. Kempe addressed a kickoff dinner for the St. Joseph hospital campaign at Mokena last Wednesday.

The Illinois and U.S. health departments recommend 700 hospital beds for an area of this size. Even with the new St. Joseph hospital, and the recent additions to Silver Cross, here will still be 100 beds short. (Marvin Smith photo)

Reports on Assembly Activities

By HAROLD A. HOOVER

State Representative, 2nd Dist.

Although the present session of the legislature is one half over, the real "work load" lies ahead. For some reason, it seems that both Houses were slow in organizing and getting down to work. Besides, there is a limitation on the amount of work that can be done before the governor's budget message for the next biennium is received. This is expected early this month.

I notice many things different from two years ago. For one thing, the Democrats now control the House. However, they have not been united. This division was first shown at the time of the election of the speaker. Another thing, politics are very much in the "air" on both sides of the aisle. This, however, is normal in view of the coming national and state elections in 1960.

The question of finances is one of the biggest subjects of the session. With inflation and the greater demands being placed on our state government for services, there appears to be a great question as to whether the needs can be met without a tax increase of some kind. Many schools are asserting a need for more state aid—a survey of the schools in my district clearly indicates that the need is great and that solutions must be found if our young people are to be provided with equal educational opportunities.

The size of the financial operations of the State is best shown by the figures for the two years covered by the current appropriations. The budget for July 1, 1957, to June 30, 1959, is approximately $2,270,000,000. Of this amount $649,046,437 was appropriated for highways, $473,150,060 was appropriated for schools and colleges, and $317,408,339 was appropriated for public aid. Since the budget was adopted in 1957, additional appropriations have been made for public aid, and as a result, a total of approximately $385,000,000 will be spent for that purpose in the two year period. It is rather discouraging to realize that, at a time of relatively high prosperity, the cost of public aid is so high.

Insofar as I am concerned, I believe that economy must be practiced by the state, as well as by other taxing bodies. I do not believe in an income tax and I further believe that the loopholes in our present tax laws should be plugged before additional or new taxes are voted.

My mail to date has been mainly about education and against the bingo proposal (which was tabled by its sponsors recently). I am glad to hear from the people of my district, particularly when their letters contain information that can be of help to me in arriving at my many decisions.

Flowering Shrubs Add Interest And Beauty to Landscaping Plans

By JAMES FIZZELL
Asst. Farm Adviser

Flowering shrubs can be used to advantage around homes for beauty and interest, as well as fragrance. By proper selection of plants, a succession of bloom can be had from late March until Halloween. Flowering shrubs come in a variety of sizes from very short, such as Butterfly bush, to very tall in the case of Japanese tree lilacs, which may reach a height of over 30 feet. Other plants are available in all sizes in between.

Many people are familiar with some of the flowering shrubs such as lilacs, forsythia and honeysuckle. There are many varieties of these three plants which in themselves can make an impressive display of color in spring.

Add to these the Viburnums, flowering plums, crabapples, dogwoods and hydrangeas, and you have a display which would be envied by any home owner. Consider the flowering shrubs when planning your home surroundings. Many of them have another attractive feature such as brightly colored fruit or fall color. Most of them go nicely with evergreens.

Consult your nursery man or contact the Farm Bureau office at Tinley Park for more information on flowering shrubs.

4H members were treated to a very interesting half day at the Fairy Fitting and Showmanship school held at the Walter Lauffer farm. Our thanks to Walter Lauffer and Calvin Meyer of Peotone, for their help in making the school a worthwhile experience for our 4H members. Many important points were stressed during the meeting. One of the most important, is starting to lead your calf, grooming the calf, and feeding a proper ration. Starting the week before the County 4H Fair will not be considered timely.

There will be a training school for 4H members with rabbit projects, Tuesday April 21 at 8:00 p. m., Farm Bureau building, Tinley Park. There will be a demonstration training school for 4H members Thursday, April 23, 8:00 p. m., Tinley Park Farm Bureau building. Don Reid, Lockport popular judge, will be at the meeting to help 4H members with rabbit projects.

The 4H leaders' meeting held last week was most informative and interesting.

Members are urged to attend. Dr. John Camp, theologian, student at Olivet Nazarene College will hold services Sunday, April 19 at 7:30 p. m. He will be accompanied by musicians and singers. The Orland Park Nazarene church is located at 143rd st. and Ravinia ave.

The Orland Firemen were called to a grass fire at 13841 Elm st. on Tuesday, April 7. Mrs. T. Markiewicz of Lockport and Mrs. Wm. Murphy of Orland attended the funeral of Mrs. Ella Austin of Worth, Monday, April 6.

After the funeral services of her sister, Mrs. Gravelle, last week, two nieces of Mrs. Horn, Mrs. Gideon Wolfe and Mrs. Sief Bernhardt of Tremont, Minn., stayed overnight at the Horn residence. Another niece, Mrs. Gertrude Breitbarth of Minnesota, stayed overnight with Mr. and Mrs. Schultz in Tinley Park.

James, brother of William Ashum of Orland Park, passed away suddenly in Chicago. Funeral services were held Wednesday, April 15. Burial was in Mt. Vernon cemetery.

The faculty of Doctor's school, 159th st., are notifying parents of the district who have children who will enter that school next fall, that they should bring the children to the school Thursday, April 23 at 1 p. m. for registration. Must accompany each child.

interesting. We were pleased to have as our guest, Mr. D. S. Lantrip, State 4H Leader in Arkansas. The leaders were very interested in hearing some of the features of the Arkansas 4H program as outlined by Mr. Lantrip.

You can keep your lawn looking green all summer by using one of the 45% Urea fertilizers. This should be used monthly at the rate of about one pound per thousand square feet.

Vegetable growers having problems with club root in cabbage, can use terracot in their battle against this costly disease. Four to six pounds of the 75% wettable powder in 100 gallons of water is the proper mixture. Apply one-half to three quarters of a pint per plant in transplanting.

Farmers interested in performance of oat and soybean varieties, will have an opportunity to see just that during the spring and summer. An oat variety plot including ten varieties, will be grown on the Raymond Bernard farm, Wolf Road and 179th st., Mokena. The soybean variety plot will be planted on the Henry Andresen farm, 167th street, Orland Park. Several new soybean varieties will be included in this plot.

"How can I save on my '59 income tax?"

One obvious way: Take all allowable deductions. But were you able to recall all your deductible expenses at tax time this year? Would you be able to prove all your claims? The best way we know to have complete records and receipts is to deposit all earnings and income in a checking account; pay all bills by check. What neater, simpler records than checkbook stubs? And cancelled checks are automatically returned receipts. Be in a position to really save money at tax time next year: Open a checking account with us now—and make fullest use of it.

Tell History of Woman's Club at 43rd Birthday

The Marley Woman's club celebrated their 43rd anniversary at their regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon, held at the home of Mrs. Carl Carlson in New Lenox. Mrs. William Dudgeon was the co-hostess. Dessert-coffee was served from a pretty table centered with an arrangement of mums. The president, Mrs. Charles Elliott, presided during the business session. She announced that the spring county league Tri-annual will be held at the New Lenox Methodist church on Tuesday, April 28. Reservations are to be made with Mrs. Catherine Patric by April 24.

The program was presented by Mrs. Charles Sievert. She gave a very interesting history of the club and read the minutes and the roll call of the first meeting which was held in the Marley parsonage April 7, 1916. Mrs. Patric presented an article on "Alaska." Mrs. John Peciniak gave an article, "The Flag Still Flies." Mrs. Sievert concluded the program with "Where Flags Are Made" and "Built-ins." The May hostesses will be Mrs. Leo Shields and Mrs. George Bean.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sievert entertained at a 7 o'clock dinner in their home Sunday night. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Yeates and family, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Jungles and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Weis, all of Homer.

Mrs. Robert Sproat and Mrs. Durward Killinger and children were guests Thursday of Mrs. Boyd Bucher in her home in Lockport.

The Marley Mother's club will meet at the home of Mrs. William Loucks Friday, April 24 at 3 p.m. There will be an election of officers.

The Marley Missionary Society was represented by Mrs. Francis Nelson, Miss Helen Tilsy, Mrs. Beatrice Coe, Mrs. Garret Cummins, Mrs. Harwood Stellwagen and Mrs. Ray Hamer at the meeting of the Aurora Association of Women's Missionary Society at the First Baptist church in Joliet April 7. Mrs. Nelson was elected to the office of vice-president of the Aurora Association.

John Mosborg of Canada was a visitor Friday in the Charles Sievert and Charles Dale homes.

Mrs. Russel Lauffer, Mrs. Loren Sass, Miss Bonnie Sproat, Miss Alma Lauffer, and Miss Jean Lauffer attended a bridal shower in honor of Mrs. Jean Jensen Klausung Saturday night in the Fellowship Hall of the New Lenox Methodist church.

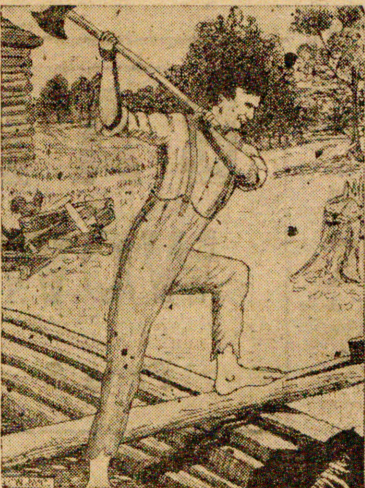

Mrs. Robert Sproat entertained the Love Gift committee of the Marley Missionary society at luncheon in her home Tuesday. Present were Mrs. Clarence Berg, Mrs. Ray Hamer, Mrs. Durward Killinger and Mrs. Francis Nelson.

A school of missions will be held in the Marley church Thursday nights, April 23 and 30, at 7:30 o'clock.

LINCOLN LOG

STUDENT COUNCIL

The newly elected Lincoln-Way high school Student Council met Tuesday, April 7, and elected its officers for the next school term. These new officers will take up their duties the first week of May. Ken Lorenz of Mokena was elected the new student council president. Bob Lichtenwalter of Manhattan, a junior next year, was elected vice-president.

Gail Harling of Mokena is secretary and Sheryl Crabtree of Manhattan, treasurer. Bryan Smith is parliamentarian and Margie Ardaugh, secretary of the council for this year, becomes the reporter. Both are from Manhattan.

F.H.A.

Marlyn Barnett, junior from Lincoln-Way, was elected vice president in charge of projects for Section 20 of the state of Illinois Future Homemakers of America, at the Carl Sandburg high school Wednesday evening, April 8.

Miss Barnett succeeds Lincoln-Way senior Annis Weber of New Lenox in this F.H.A. post.

Eighteen schools from the southwestern section of greater Chicago are members of the Section 20 F.H.A. and Marlyn will direct or oversee the annual projects show for the next year.

SPEECH TOURNEY

Bryan Smith, Lincoln-Way junior, placed second at the Section 10 Future Farmers of America speech contest last Wednesday evening at Red-dick. Smith missed by a mere point being the winner.

The second place finish to Roger Smoehy of Milford has earned Smith a berth in the district tournament to be held at either Ottawa or LaSalle April 22.

Robert VanRheeden, sponsor, felt "Smith has as good a chance as the winner, Smoehy, at the district." If Bryan, a resident of Manhattan, should win at the district, he will move on to the state competition.

In the afternoon, Wilbur Weber of Lincoln-Way finished in fourth place in the extemporaneous speech contest. Smith was the chairman of the Lincoln-Way parliamentary team that came home with the Section 10 first place banner a few weeks ago.

ON U. OF C. PROGRAM

A. Hunter Chapman, superintendent of Lincoln-Way high school and Earl H. Dieken, assistant principal, were on a program at the University of Chicago Tuesday of this week. This is an administrators' clinic which is sponsored by the Midwest Administration Center of the University of Chicago.

The actual meeting will be a discussion type session.

FUTURE FARMERS

A group from the Future Farmers of America of Lincoln-Way attended the annual Farm Festival at the University of Illinois April 2.

Robert Van Rheeden, head of Vocational Agriculture at Lincoln-Way, took ten students on the trip to Urbana. This group was the top in the garden seed contest of the agriculture department. The boys were Jim DeHart, Jack Gertz, Tom Johnson, Jon Mad-dock, Jerry Santerelli, Bob Segvich, Allen Waldvogel, Douglas Williams, and Ron Yunker.

Mr. Van Rheeden felt that the Farm Festival had great educational value rather than entertainment or sight-seeing.

PTA Fun Night At Orland Park Pleases Crowd

A crowd estimated at 550 turned out for the PTA Fun Night, April 4 at the Orland Grade school gym to make the evening a smashing financial success.

"Profits went well beyond our fondest dreams," said Mrs. Gordon Bendix, PTA president.

An army of workers, headed by Mrs. Eugene Paschall, went all out to cram the evening with fun for everyone—for big folks and little folks. Planning and preparations were weeks in process. "The interest, enthusiasm, and cooperation were really tremendous," said Mrs. Paschall, fun night chair man.

All carnival events were busy until the stock of prizes was exhausted. Dozens of "painted Indians" and "French dolls" proved the popularity of the make up booth. Madame Zodiac, the palmist, was kept busy. The movies were popular. Every phase of the event was well received.

Highlight of the evening was the Father Son Basketball game. The seventh and eighth grade boys, aided and abetted by James Callahan and Raymond Livingston, faculty members, and coached by Norbert Jerling, school superintendent, beat the dads, coached by Kirk Wheeler, 27-23. Referees were Richard Farr Jr., and Jerry Zinn.

The clown (Mr. Merrill Cooper) and friend, the bunny delighted the children and amused the adults thruout the evening.

A nine piece pep band from Carl Sandburg high school under the direction of Kathy Mortenson, helped to entertain.

Proceeds from the evening were for the fund being set aside for the proposed hot lunch cafeteria for the school.

Various committee chairmen were: Mrs. Otto Kettler, Charles McKinley, Mrs. Roland Roth, and Mrs. Elmer Libner; Mrs. Frank Bischoff, Mrs. Robert L. Dornbrook; Mrs. Earl Enders; Mrs. William Fisher; Mrs. Fred Dellapenna; Mrs. Fredrick Diekman; Mrs. Billy Clark; Mrs. Franklin Loebe; Mr. and Mrs. George Buckley; Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson; Charles Weist, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eddy and Mrs. Charles McKinley.

Business and Finance

By MAURICE P. ANGLAND

The possibility of a steel strike has been the subject of a great deal of discussion in financial circles for the last couple of months.

It is evident that there is considerable political pressure on both the steel makers and the unions to avoid a strike if possible. Steel makers and their customers have been anticipating such a strike by increasing their inventories of finished steel. Some steel makers have been operating at or near capacity to fill demands. It is anticipated that regardless of a strike, the rate of production will be lower in the third quarter due to inventory increases. This let down in steel may be less than was anticipated in January as auto sales and those of items using considerable steel, has been considerably better than anticipated at that time.

Some observers do not believe there will be much of a steel strike, if any. It would seem that some of the labor leaders in steel do not want a strike at this time, but must go thru the motions of preparations for such a strike in order to keep their standing with the union rank and file. These leaders are aware that inflationary pressures have been heavy and any increase in steel prices, effects many products.

The employers, on the other hand, are well aware of the problems of the labor leaders and there may be concessions which would be "face saving" to the union leaders. It is not uncommon for experienced employer negotiators to give concessions after what appears to have been hard fought trading. This is good business among professionals who will be meeting each other many times in labor negotiations and must be practical in their dealings.

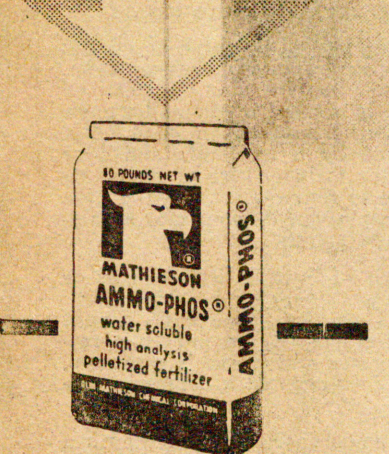

Financial World has compared the market action of the radio industry in 1929, the aircrafts in 1939, and the missile and electronic fields at this time.

The magazine states that early radio stocks achieved large speculative enthusiasms with result that many new firms came into the field and the mortality for such firms was high.

It is pointed out that the aircrafts were getting a big play before the outbreak of war in 1939 and that after this date, the aircrafts dominated market news for many months.

N. Lenox Library Opened in 1936

This is National Library Week and William Stratton, governor of Illinois, has proclaimed it thruout the State, calling on citizens to join in recognizing the vitality of the printed words in today's world. The New Lenox library will be open every day during the week.

The Woman's club of New Lenox made the initial plans for a library in October 1935, and a committee of Mrs. W. W. Sine, president; Mrs. O. V. Rowe, secretary; Mrs. Ray Osmus, treasurer; Mrs. Harlow Gougar, and Mrs. William Drake formulated plans for the civic project.

The committee was fortunate in obtaining a small vacant room in the Haven school building. They were aided by the local Boy Scouts who collected 385 books, donated by interested persons in the community. The committee then set about raising money to meet the cost of supplies and equipment necessary to accommodate the books.

The New Lenox Lumber and Hardware Company donated lumber to build bookcases; labor to build them was donated by Charles Pense, Leigh Jones, Henry Fink and Dewey Moore.

Books were cataloged under the direction of Mrs. W. W. Sine of New Lenox and Mrs. V. M. Seron of Joliet.

The library was opened to the public on Friday, Feb. 7, 1936 with Miss Ramona Fink as librarian. It was supported by money raised in various ways by the committee until Oct. 8, 1946 when it became tax supported at an election.

In 1943, because of crowded school conditions, the library moved from the school house to the barber shop. Having outgrown its space, the library moved again on Aug. 6, 1947

Standard & Poor market price index of aircraft manufacturing stocks had a high in 1939 that was not attained again until 1951.

The missile and electronics stocks are mostly selling at prices that discount any earnings increase, well into the future. Whenever an industrial group achieves such speculative enthusiasms, there are sure to be a number of new issues offered which have little chance of success or even survival.

Speculators have been willing to pay 35 and even 50 times earnings for some of the missile and electronics stocks. This is discounting any improvements well into the future.

It would seem that there are many good grade defensive issues which offer a fair return plus steady growth with out being too vulnerable in market adjustments.

to the Hauck building across from the New Lenox State bank where a much larger room was rented.

In 1953 the library board purchased land and a notion store building on Church st. The building was remodeled and on Feb. 1, 1957, the library moved to its present location.

From 385 books, it has grown to 3,390 books catalogued at this time.

Gifts of books and memorial gifts have been presented to the library during the years.

In 1941, Mrs. Laura Morris took charge as librarian. In 1957, Mrs. Irene Peterson became assistant librarian. There is no charge for library cards for Township residents. The charge per year for non residents is 50 cents.

Hours the library is open are: Monday 6:30 to 9 pm., Wednesday 2 to 5:30 pm., Friday 2 to 5:30 pm., and Saturday 10 a.m. to 4 pm.

The present library board is composed of Fred Scheel, president, Frank Pester, Laura Morris, Dr. A. D. Miller, Ronald Whitaker, and Mrs. Howard Ayres.

There are many new books on the library shelves for library week.

Presbyterians At Palos Plan Church Addition

The Palos Park Presbyterian Community church will hold ground breaking ceremonies Sunday, April 19 to mark the start of a new sanctuary and Christian Education building. Services will be at 9:30 and 11 a.m.

The new building will be an extension of the present church and will include Sunday school class space, a fellowship hall and administrative offices, as well as the new sanctuary.

Present membership of this Palos church is 697, an increase of 550 per cent over the roll for 1950, and a far cry from the few pioneers who drove horses and buggies to the original church building for first services in 1902. This first building still serves as a Sunday school space.

Cost of the new building is estimated at $300,000, and completion is expected by April, 1960. Charles Edward Stadel and Associates of Park Ridge are the architects.

Candidates for City Offices Chat With Voters at Jaycee Meeting

By EVELYN VAN HORN
Sycamore 8-8921

Candidates Night, sponsored by the Country Club Hills Junior Chamber of Commerce at Sanger hall, Tinley Park, gave voters of the city an opportunity to hear and talk with those seeking office in the coming municipal election, April 21.

Clifford Arehart acting chairman of the Jaycees, introduced the Rev. Wendell Pew who opened the meeting with the suggestion that all voters use judgment in making their selections and keep personalities out of it.

Three candidates are unopposed: Louis Buerincke, for police magistrate; William Baader, for city treasurer, and Virginia Bennison, for city clerk. All are incumbents.

There are two candidates for mayor, James Nally, now an alderman, and William Marquardsen.

There are three wards and two aldermen are to be elected in each. The polling place for the first ward will be the Fire House on Patrick avenue; the second ward polling place is located in Stanley Sokolowski's garage at 18010 Thomas Lane and the third ward polling place is the old construction office at 184th and Cicero. The polls will be open from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. Tuesday, April 21.

Candidates for aldermen are:

First ward: Eugene Fluder, Fred Pentzien, incumbents, and Donald West and Daniel Kelley.

Second ward: Ray Gaertner, incumbent; Robert Landeen, Clinton Nelson, and Mayor Eugene Landenberg, who is seeking election to the council as an alderman.

Third ward: George Shaffner, Ray Hoewing, incumbents and James O'Connell.

Nelson, Kelley, West and O'Connell apparently are bracketed together in the running.

Each of the candidates had an opportunity to air his views and after a coffee break the meeting was placed on a question and answer basis.

The principal question—and one that is believed responsible for attracting many persons to the meeting—is the identity of the "Committee for a Better City Government."

This was the signature appended to a flier distributed in Country Club Hills prior to the meeting boosting O'Connell for mayor in a write in campaign.

Mr. O'Connell said that he too was curious as to who was sponsoring him for mayor. In addressing the Candidates Night audience, O'Connell said flatly that he was not a candidate for mayor, and he did not want any votes cast for him for mayor. All he wanted, he said, were votes for him for alderman. He added that he had no idea who might have circulated flier in which he was purported to be a mayoralty candidate.

Another question asked was when the city might expect to have a police force and how soon Country Club Hills could expect to have commercial enterprises. City officials present answered the first question. They believed the city would have a full time police officer and a squad car in June or July. Apparently there were no representatives of prospective commercial enterprises present and that question was not answered.

There was some discussion of a proposal to be voted on at the election next Tuesday which would limit terms of elective officials to two years instead of four. Since the election of aldermen is staggered, two year terms would necessitate holding an election every year.

School Election
The people in School Dist. 160 gave overwhelming support to the $59,000 bond issue proposed by the board of education as a part of the program to get state aid in the building of another school.

Under a comparatively new law the state school commission will advance the funds necessary to erect a school building when the district has no other financial means to finance it. A district must first, however, vote all of the bonds it can authorize and apply that money to the cost of the school.

The money advanced by the state is then paid back by a district like rent. The payment shall be such that the state will be repaid in 16 2/3 years. The state does not charge any interest.

A tax levy to produce approximately $14,000 to pay for the rental and maintenance of the school was also approved as was the proposal to extend the school year beyond nine months.

The vote on the bond issue was 411 to 58.

The vote on the tax levy was 415 to 57.

The vote on the proposal to extend the school year was 331 to 39.

Three places were filled on the board of education, two three year terms and one one-year term. William Hastings, president of the board, was reelected but the other incumbent, Donald Swanson, failed in his bid for another term. Elected with Hastings was Clayton Ammondson.

Mrs. Mary Lou Keyes, unopposed, was elected to the board for one year. She polled a total of 383 votes.

Unofficial returns for the other three candidates are:

Hastings	359
Ammondson	265
Swanson	239

Boy Scouts

The Boy Scout committee met at the home of William Lindecker. Al Katz resigned as treasurer because of his new job and has been replaced by school Supt. Zenon Sykuta. At this meeting a motion was adopted to purchase accident protection insurance for all scouts. The committee also authorized the purchase of four four man tents. The money for a Parents Night to be held in the near future also a May outing for the boy scouts. The paper drive will be continued although the committee is faced with a serious problem as to where to store the paper until prices rise again.

Civic Association
The regular monthly meeting of the Civic Association of Country Club Hills will be held on Monday, April 20. All residents are invited.

The Association has been investigating the matter of postal facilities for Country Club Hills. A survey determined that at present no postal facilities can be justified. The establishment of a post office depends on continued population growth and the establishment of a business section.

Country Club Hills should not be used as a mailing address until such a time as it has a post office.

"Stardust Stroll" a Success

The "Stardust Stroll" sponsored by the Home Owners Association held at Sanger hall Saturday, April 11 was a huge success. The highlight of the evening was the performance given by Bill and Evvy Ferguson, professional entertainers. The crowd gave them a tremendous ovation after their song and dance number. The Fergusons donated their services for the dance.

Clyde Bennison, chairman of the dance, had not been able to announce the amount of profit yet as all expenses had not yet been accounted for. The profit from the dance will be turned over to the school district for their use.

United Christian Church
A baptismal service was held Sunday afternoon in First Christian Church of Chicago Heights for Mrs. John Cox, Beverly Leek, and Evelyn Ebert.

Coffee parties will be initiated again wherever possible to introduce new families to the church. The membership committee is also making plans to take a community religious census by telephone in the near future.

The Youth Fellowship elected officers last Sunday evening. They are: Sandra Radatz, president; Evelyn Ebert, vice president; Jeff Sykuta, sec., treas. Plans are for the group to go roller skating after the Fellowship Supper on April 19.

Sunday, April 19, the monthly Fellowship supper will be held in the Flossmoor Community House at 5 p. m. The program will feature the film Mongonga. A nursery will be provided during the film.

The Christian Women's Fellowship has been invited to a general meeting of the Home-town Women's Fellowship on Monday, April 20.

THIS, TOO, IS TEXAS EASTERN

Sixty-One
Compressor Stations
Now Serve Our Gas
Transmission System

A brand new compressor station—our 61st—has boosted the total horsepower of our natural gas transmission system to a sizeable 739,000.

This tremendous amount of horsepower is enabling us to deliver increasing quantities of gas from the Southwest to our customers, some of whom are as far away as the New England states. Our delivery capacity is now more than two billion cubic feet of gas per day.

Back in 1947, when there were no compressor stations in operation on the system, natural gas flowed through the system's 3,182 miles of pipeline under gas field pressure at the rate of some 138 million cubic feet daily.

Today our compressor stations—spaced every 50 to 75 miles—are pushing a lot more gas through a lot more pipe—more than 6100 miles of it. They speed gas to distributing companies serving millions of homes and thousands of factories in Midwestern, Appalachian and Eastern Seaboard states.

And, newest of all, Texas Eastern now has a number of "satellite stations," which are operated by remote control from other stations on the system.

About a third of Texas Eastern's stations have gas-driven reciprocating compressors. These compressors are large machines—that feed on the gas they push. Other stations have electric motor-powered centrifugal compressors, pioneered by Texas Eastern.

A newer type of power plant is the high speed gas turbine which drives centrifugal compressor units. These new units are so powerful that they can do the work formerly done by a number of smaller ones. Each station is under the supervision of a chief operator. He is assisted by a mechanic and four operators. Each operator is in charge of an eight-hour period—with one to four oilers assisting him. Thus, a compressor station can develop into a community of from 15 to 20 families.

Regardless of the type of installation—large or small—all Texas Eastern compressor stations have one thing in common...they're immaculate. Bright and gleaming, they usually stand in park-like settings of well trimmed grass and in the background, neat modern company cottages add a domestic note to it all.

At each station, continuous operation—24 hours a day, 365 days a year—is standard practice.

This is one of a series of monthly reports on the diversified activities of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation.

National Sunday School Week

This is Sunday School Week.

Fifteen years ago the Laymen's National Committee, Inc., a non-sectarian, non-profit organization, inaugurated Sunday School Week to focus attention on the importance of our nation's Sunday Schools. Since that time it has been observed every April.

This year the observance has been set for the current week, April 13-19.

The slogan is "MAKE EVERY WEEK SUNDAY SCHOOL WEEK."

Starting our children in the right direction by giving them an opportunity to learn the Word of God in our Sunday Schools should be the aim of everyone interested in the future welfare of our nation.

That practice of the moral virtues begun as a child can become second nature to the adult.

Growth of interest in Sunday Schools in this region is evidenced by the recent additions to churches in the various communities to meet increasing attendance in these classes, and that is a fine thing.

Sunday School is as important as regular school.

Dr. John J. Theobald, head of the New York City schools with an enrollment of a million boys and girls, has this to say about Sunday schools:

Man's two greatest adventures are exploring the world around him and the world within him. Whether he probes with a missile or a prayer, he's on the high road of adventure, and his preparations must begin early in life. Sunday Schools of all faiths stress the principles that start young people in the right direction. And all of us should help.

TETANUS

The possibility of developing lockjaw (tetanus) will usually strike fear into the heart of almost anyone and with good reason. The disease is an extremely serious one and is frequently fatal. Now that spring has officially arrived, children will be heading outdoors and farmers have started to work up their land. These are the activities which increase greatly the risk of tetanus infection.

Lockjaw does not develop often. Actually it is surprising how seldom we see the disease considering how frequently injuries occur under circumstances which encourage tetanus infection. Nevertheless the illness is so terribly serious that it is important to take all reasonable precautions in order to avoid it. This requires some general knowledge of the problem.

Lockjaw is caused by a germ called the tetanus bacillus. It behaves differently than most germs which require oxygen or air for growth or multiplication. The tetanus bacillus can live in air but it grows and multiplies much faster when exposure to air is absent or limited. Once it gets a foothold in the human body, a poison or toxin is released which irritates and paralyzes the nerves.

This results in severe muscle spasms and convulsions. The name, lockjaw, comes from the frequent occurrence of spasms of the face muscles.

The tetanus germ exists everywhere outdoors but it is especially common in farm areas because the germ comes from manure. This is the reason that everyone knows stepping on a rusty nail in the yard can easily lead to tetanus. Since the nail is rusted it means it has been lying on the ground for some time and has had plenty of opportunity to become covered with the germ.

When the nail enters the foot it produces a small puncture wound which leaves the germs in the tissue rather than on the skin. There is very little air in the bottom of the puncture hole, creating an ideal spot for tetanus growth.

However many people do not realize that it does not require a rusty nail or a puncture wound to develop tetanus. A brand new nail lying on the ground for a few hours can accumulate enough tetanus germs to kill. Any object from outdoors can contain these germs and even a scratch, if neglected and not cleaned, can eventually lead to lockjaw.

One of the most important accomplishments of modern medicine is the ability to prevent any possibility of development of this disease. However, this depends on the understanding and cooperation of the people. Everyone who served in the armed forces was given injections for tetanus immunization. Almost all school children have received the same protection.

Unfortunately many men have never had a booster shot after their military service and many children never return for periodic boosters after finishing school. Unless a booster dose is given every four years, the immunity disappears.

Moreover most people seem to believe that the original series of three injections provides full immunity until it is time for the booster. This is not true. The level of immunity drops rapidly after each booster. In order to have full protection, a booster dose is necessary any time a significant injury involving a break in the skin occurs outdoors.

When an injury occurs which might lead to tetanus infection in a person who has never been immunized, he is treated with antitoxin. This is a method of giving a patient protection since he has none of his own to neutralize the tetanus toxin. However this treatment is not always effective. Moreover many individuals are strongly allergic to this antitoxin.

Therefore to be completely protected against tetanus, these rules should be followed:

1. Visit your doctor soon and receive the three injections necessary to produce immunity.

2. Clean every scratch thoroughly.

3. Obtain a booster shot for every deep cut occurring outdoors.

4. Obtain a booster shot regularly every four years.

Despite the snow flurries and near freezing temperatures of last week, spring is stirring. Tulips and crocuses are poking inquisitive leaves through the ground and buds are filling on shrubs and trees.

The sun is keeping longer hours and packing more warmth. Grass is getting green and the robins and other birds are tramping back from southern sojourns, fat enough to butcher.

There will be plenty of days yet when one may wonder if Winter will ever leave the road and go into Summer quarters at the poles. But Spring is not too far away.

The baseball season has opened, school and league; kites are in evidence and any day now mib players will be trying their skills, and gardeners developing initial aches and creaks.

But the clinching sign that Spring is in the offing was the appearance in our office of Osgood P. Throckbottom, a retired subdivider, on his way north. More familiarly known as Zephyr—or Windy by those who have difficulty sounding their R's—Mr. Throckbottom has it made and is now a general consultant and man of leisure.

General consultant, as applied to Zephyr, means that he is ready and willing to give an expert opinion on practically any subject from aardvarks to zwiebach, with or without a fee altho naturally he will go into more detail if money is involved.

Zephyr spends the spring, summer and early fall in a lake cottage in upper Minnesota but after the first hard frost forms a thin covering of ice on quiet water, he puts away his fresh water tackle and like the Canadian goose goes honking southward.

He winters in the Gulf States, Florida, Cuba and the Bahamas and starts north with the birds.

Occasionally he takes a flyer in Florida real estate or enjoys a flutter in northern resort property but he has hung his plats of lot layouts and bulldozer on the wall.

"I figure," Zephyr said on his visit last week, "that in my time as a housing developer I have lured enough people to the country and suburbs to have depopulated a city the size of Cleveland, except for the fact that there are always people who had their origins in the country or suburbs who make their way to the city so we are not left with a ghost metropolis on our hands."

"I have had enough hills leveled in laying out subdivisions," he reminisced, "that if they were stacked on top of each other they would make an excellent base for a launching pad for those who hope to get a missile to the moon. Fuel would be no problem. The summit of such a hill would be so high that a dime's worth of black powder would carry a rocket the rest of the way."

Zephyr admitted modestly that he had had enough trees pushed or cut down in preparing building sites to make the timber in the Alleghenies look like a picnic grove.

Altho no longer engaged in butchering the land, Zephyr sighs when he thinks of lost opportunities. Oh, to be young again, he says with a faraway look in his eyes. And one senses that if the calendar could be turned back Zephyr would not bury his talents in the top soil of the Midwest.

No, Zephyr would not be here, rather would he be leading an army of bulldozers against the Rockies and the other mountain ranges of the west, and the great redwood forests, and stands of fir and pine.

"What a monument that would be," Zephyr points out in awed tones. "Just think of the acclaim that would come to the subdivider that leveled all the mountains; got rid of all the trees, and covered the entire space with homes, shopping centers, roof beer stands and hamburger joints."

The homes would all look alike, inside and out, Zephyr added, but conceded their might be some variation in the architectural design of the grease joints, wayside saloons and gasoline stations.

"Death is not the great leveler," says Zephyr. "The great leveler," he went on, "is the modern housing development where all the houses look alike; the yards look alike. Even the people, the kids and the dogs—being mostly cockers—look alike."

"This is truly democracy in action," Zephyr continued, warning to his subject. "The Declaration of Independence tells us that all men are created equal. Mr. Samuel Colt accomplished a great deal toward this end when he produced the famous .45 pistol bearing his name but the modern housing developer has done more to put everyone on an equal basis than any other agency."

"With subdivisions springing up like mad all over what is left of the landscape," added Zephyr, "everyone is being equalized. Practically everyone today has a mortgage, a picture window, a car, a power mower, and all the other power appliances that are as much a part of our present way of life as the anxious look most folks wear."

Zephyr pointed out that the homeowners aren't the only ones who bear burdens. Pity the poor subdivider, he urges. In his own case, says Zephyr, he has been as many as 12 corporations himself, all doing business at the same time on the same project. This takes quite a bit of doing, he contends, and can be quite wearing, so he elected to retire.

Sometimes he regrets this decision, Zephyr admits, especially in the spring when he sees a piece of wooded, rolling land that is just asking to be scraped and leveled off and denuded of all greenery and couples wandering about the countryside on Sunday afternoons looking for a place to call home.

He concedes that with little to do other than fish and travel, time can become tedious.

Zephyr likes people. Zephyr likes people's money. That is why, he told me, that he is thinking of starting up again but in a business with less responsibilities and no need to be more than one corporation at a time.

He has just about decided, he said, as he gathered up his sun glasses and my ballpoint pens preparatory to departure, to buy one of those wheels of fortune and join a carnival.

AFTERTHOUGHTS

The tongue is a rope by which many hang themselves . . . We are suffering from paralysis of analysis . . . The greatest remedy for anger is delay . . . Diplomacy is the art of letting someone have your way . . . Character is what you are when you think nobody is looking . . . Success depends not so much on sitting up nights as on being awake in the day time . . . When you steal from one author that's plagiarism; but stealing from twenty is research.
